APPENDIX TO IDS

This IDS is being submitted in order to consolidate all references known to the Applicant which might be relevant to the present application. Submission of these references does not constitute any admission that any reference is indeed prior art in this application, since the same IDS is being submitted in multiple applications with multiple filing dates.

The present application relates to a technology that was developed by Applicant and his (their) Assignee as a part of various development programs relating to a set of commercial products known as PASSAGE™. This family of products and patent applications relate generally to technologies involving various aspects of or associated with encryption and decryption, selective encryption and decryption, multiple selective encryption and decryption, Digital Rights Management, PID mapping or remapping, trick play, headend storage strategies and content substitution. The signatory of this IDS is currently handling prosecution of 37 such applications, and will be submitting identical IDS's in each application. The undersigned has recently been made aware that two other firms are also handling prosecution of a number of applications relating to these or related technologies. Accordingly, the undersigned has been in contact with these firms to determine what information is known to relate to the applications that those firms are handling. This consolidated IDS is believed to incorporate all of the references known to the undersigned, Applicant(s), the assignee and supplied by these firms.

As a result, a large body of information is being brought forward and consolidated into this IDS. Furthermore, this IDS consolidates references that might have been submitted in earlier IDS's or brought forward in foreign search reports in many of the 37 applications. In view of the recent rule changes which affects whether or not a submission will be made available to the Examiner electronically, the continued automation advances at the USPTO, and the large number of references that have been deemed by this firm, the Assignee, the Inventor(s) or the other two firms to be potentially relevant to this technology, it is believed that it may be advantageous to the Examiner to submit this consolidated IDS at this point to assure that all possible references are made available electronically to the Examiner in this application. While the undersigned regrets that such a large number of references are involved, he and the Assignee feel that the most conservative way to assure compliance with the duty of disclosure is to submit all references in all applications.

In addition to the U.S. Patent and Patent Application references that are being submitted herewith, numerous non-patent references and foreign patent references are also being submitted. Most of these references are available to the undersigned in electronic form and will be gladly supplied to the Examiner upon request. The undersigned is unaware of any mechanism provided by the rules for supplying such information electronically, or else they would have been supplied in this manner.

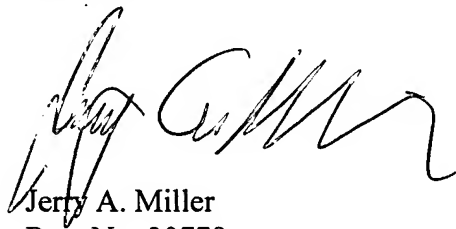

The undersigned notes that in many instances, non-U.S. patent documents may have been previously submitted and are thus not being submitted herewith. Accordingly, it is requested that the Examiner look to the paper file for any such references that appear to be missing. Conversely, redundant copies may be submitted herewith in certain cases, in which case a redundant copy may be discarded at the USPTO. If the Examiner is unable to locate any non-U.S. patent document, it is respectfully requested that he or she contact the undersigned to obtain a copy. The production of 37 IDS documents having such a large number of references is a very large job that could have possibly resulted in an inadvertent oversight.

The undersigned wishes to note that, while certain of the references submitted herewith have been personally reviewed to a varying extent, the undersigned has not reviewed a large percentage of the references submitted herewith and submits them on the basis of instructions from the Applicant(s), assignee, or as a result of a foreign search report or as a result of appearance on the list of references obtained from the other two firms filing related applications. Accordingly, the undersigned, in many instances has no direct knowledge at this time as to the relative relevance of any particular reference. These references are therefore being submitted in date order without such review in order to attempt to put them before the Examiner at the earliest possible time, and hopefully before any action on the merits in most instances.

Also in the interest of full disclosure, the undersigned submits herewith a complete listing of all known applications relating to these technologies including those applications being processed by this firm as well as those being processed by the other two firms. The undersigned has no direct knowledge of the content of the applications filed by the other firms. The identifying information for these applications is as it was supplied by the other two firms.

The undersigned respectfully requests that the Examiner of this application coordinate with the Examiners on other applications to assure that the best art is considered in examination of this application. The undersigned will be more than happy to assist the Examiner in any way possible and invites the Examiner to contact him at the telephone number below to discuss this case and it's relationship to the other applications or answer any other questions.

Respectfully submitted,
